41.020.9. Relationship with Rotary International

The organization and functioning of intercountry committees is the independent activity of individual districts and is not a part of the program of RI. Clubs and districts are encouraged to use established intercountry committee relationships to enhance their participation in Rotary Foundation programs, especially in the development of grants.

Activities of and information about intercountry committees will be published on the RI website and in the Rotary World Magazine Press. (May 2015 Mtg., Bd. Dec. 178)

41.030. New Generations Service Exchange

Adults up to the age of 30 may participate in New Generations Service Exchange for up to six months and may be organized for individuals or groups. The minimum age of the participants shall be the age of majority in the host country, but not be younger than age 18. New Generations Service Exchanges must have a strong humanitarian or vocational service component.

The schedule of activity shall be developed by the host district, primarily comprised of people-to-people interactions and service work supporting one or more of The Rotary Foundation's six areas of focus, vocational service (such as professional development and leadership training), and/or local activities involving New Generations activities. The host district shall arrange for the hosting of participants and provide local transportation. Districts shall utilize screening procedures to identify suitable hosting arrangements.

Eligible candidates shall be sponsored by a local Rotary club near their place of residence, their district New Generations Service chair, and sending district governor. Current Rotaractors and Rotary alumni are encouraged to apply. Participants should demonstrate a strong commitment to service and the ideals of Rotary.

Districts are encouraged to establish agreements with their exchange partners to set expectations concerning the logistics of the exchange, participant selection and orientation, funding and participant expenses, and the service activities in which the participants will participate.

New Generations Service Exchanges need not be reciprocal. (January 2017 Mtg., Bd. Dec. 87)
